7. “Things become ours slowly”

The Mystery visits us constantly, and does not abandon us to our fears and our nothingness. Its tenderness towards us shows itself in the way it does not force anything, giving us “the time we need to make each human step”, thus leading us to recognize its victory in our lives. What steps have you made on this journey? Are you defending something of yourself out of fear?

We suggest working on pages 8-9 of the Notes from the GS Raggio via video link with Julián Carrón and Francesco Barberis. We should re-read the text, consider our experience, and let ourselves be challenged by these questions.
